SURRLY, ROBERT A.

An aide to Gen. Walker in Dallas, rented the hall of U. S. Day rally night before Adlai Stevenson was heckled at U. N. Day meeting. (NY Times 12/11/63, article about Oswald and Kennedy Assassination)

Surrey's story of Gen. Walker's jailing at Oxford, Miss., is in Surrey file.

Owns and operates American Eagle Publishing -- see file

Arranged for printing of "Wanted for Treason" handbills distributed just before Kennedy visit to Dallas -- see Warren Commission Report (Bantam Edition), pp. 277-8

Does not own American Eagle Publishing Co.-- the company is the property of Gen. Walker, and all profits from its sales of Walker's material are used "to further the entire Pro Blue Program." (letter from Surrey to Pasadena Independent Star-News, 6/11/62-- original filed Walker; copy in Surrey file)